

3. LIABILITY OF THE COMPANY (cont'd)

Liabilities Between Parties (cont'd)

In no case shall either the Company or the telecommunications carrier be liable to the other for any indirect, special, consequential, incidental or punitive damages, including, but not limited to, economic loss, lost business, revenues, or profits (collectively "Consequential Damages"), whether foreseeable or not, and regardless of notification by, the other party of the possibility of such damages. This limitation shall not limit any right the Company or a telecommunications carrier may have to be indemnified, defended or held harmless against any amounts payable to a third person, including any losses, costs, fines, penalties, criminal or civil judgments or settlements, expenses (including attorney's fees) and Consequential Damages of such third person. The Company and the telecommunications carrier agree that this allocation of risk and liability is fair and reasonable.

3. LIABILITY OF THE COMPANY (cont'd)

Liabilities to Other Parties

The telecommunications carrier and the Company shall each be responsible only for the service(s) and facility(ies) it provides, and neither shall bear any responsibility for the service(s) and facility(ies) provided by the other or a third party. Neither the Company nor the telecommunications carrier shall bear any responsibility for the services and facilities provided by the other, Affiliates of the other, or agents, subcontractors, or other persons retained by the other. Neither the Company nor the telecommunications carrier shall be liable for any act or omission of another telecommunications carrier (other than an Affiliate) providing a portion of a service. A Party's liability, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, to the other Party shall not exceed the amounts properly charged for the service or facility (ies) by such Party for the period of time during which such Party failed to provide the service(s) or facility(ies). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in cases involving any Claim for a Loss associated with the installation, provision, termination, maintenance, repair or restoration of an individual Network Element or combination or a resale service provided for a specific customer of the telecommunications carrier, the Company's liability to the telecommunications carrier shall be limited to the greater of: (i) the total amount properly charged to the telecommunications carrier for the service or function not performed or improperly performed and (ii) the amount the Company would have been liable to its customer if the comparable retail service was provided directly to its customer.

3. LIABILITY OF THE COMPANY (cont'd)

Liabilities to Other Parties (cont'd)

The telecommunications carrier and the Company shall indemnify, defend and hold each other harmless for and against any claim, loss or damage, asserted by any person related to or arising out of the acts or omissions of the other party or by customers, employees, agents, or contractors of the other party against whom indemnification is sought. In such cases, the indemnifying party shall reimburse the other for all of the non-defending party's costs, expenses or judgments including attorney's fees. Each party agrees to notify the other promptly of any matters for which the foregoing indemnity may apply. Failure to so notify the indemnifying party shall not relieve such party of any liability or responsibility, except to the extent that such failure prejudices the ability of the indemnifying party to defend any action or claim. The indemnifying party shall have the right to defend against such liability or assertion in which event the indemnifying party shall give written notice to the indemnified party of acceptance of the defense of such claim and the identity of counsel selected by the indemnifying party. Until such time as indemnifying party provides such written notice of acceptance of the defense of such claim, the indemnified party shall defend such Claim, at the expense of the indemnifying party, subject to any right of the indemnifying party, to seek reimbursement for the costs of such defense in the event that it is determined that indemnifying party had no obligation to indemnify the indemnified party for such Claim. The indemnifying party shall have exclusive right to control and conduct the defense and settlement of any such claims subject to consultation with the Indemnified Party. The indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement by the indemnified party unless such indemnifying party has approved such settlement in advance and agrees to be bound by the agreement incorporating such settlement.

PART 22 - Resale Local Exchange Service
SECTION 1 - General Terms and Conditions

Original Sheet No. 2.4

3. LIABILITY OF THE COMPANY (cont'd)

Liabilities to Other Parties (cont'd)

At any time, an indemnified party shall have the right to refuse a compromise or settlement and, at such refusing party's cost, to take over such defense; provided that in such event the indemnifying party shall not be responsible for, nor shall it be obligated to indemnify the relevant indemnified party against, any cost or liability in excess of such refused compromise or settlement. With respect to any defense accepted by the indemnifying party, the relevant indemnified party shall be entitled to participate with the indemnifying party in such defense if the claim requests equitable relief or other relief that could affect the rights of the indemnified party and also shall be entitled to employ separate counsel for such defense at such indemnified party's expense. If the indemnifying party does not accept the defense of any indemnified claim as provided above, the relevant indemnified party shall have the right to employ counsel for such defense at the expense of the indemnifying party. Each party agrees to cooperate and to cause its employees and agents to cooperate with the other party in the defense of any such claim and the relevant records of each Party shall be available to the other party with respect to any such defense, subject to any applicable restrictions and limitations set forth elsewhere in this Tariff.

The telecommunications carrier may, at its discretion, provide in its tariffs or other contracts for services under this Part with its end users, that in no case shall the Company be liable to the telecommunications carrier's end users or any third parties for any Consequential Damages, whether foreseeable or not, and regardless of notification by the telecommunications carrier of the possibility of such damages. To the extent that a telecommunications carrier elects not to place in its tariffs or contracts such limitation(s) of liability, and the Company incurs a loss as a result thereof, such telecommunications carrier shall indemnify and reimburse the Company for that portion of the loss that would have been limited had the telecommunications carrier included in its tariffs and contracts the limitation(s) of liability that the Company included in its own retail tariffs at the time of such loss. Nothing in this Part shall be deemed to create a third party beneficiary relationship with the telecommunications carrier's end users.

3. LIABILITY OF THE COMPANY (cont'd)

If a Carrier ceases to resell Resale Local Exchange Services to its customers and fails to make arrangements for the continuation of such services, the Carrier shall provide an option to its customers to select an alternate Carrier. In the event that Carrier fails to provide such option or any of Carrier's Customers fail to select a new Carrier, Company will provide local exchange services to Carrier's Customers under TARIFF M.P.S.C. NO. 20R at then current recurring and usage sensitive tariff rates for service being furnished except that in this circumstance otherwise applicable service establishment charges will not apply to the Carrier's Customer, but will be assessed to the Carrier.

/1/

The Company is not liable for mistakes that appear in Company's listings, 911 and information databases, or for incorrect referrals of end users to Carrier for any ongoing Carrier service, sales or repair inquiries, and with respect to such mistakes or incorrect referrals, the Carrier shall save harmless and indemnify the Company from any and all claims, demands, causes of action and liabilities whatsoever, including costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees incurred on account thereof, by third persons (including the Carrier's customers or employees).

This section sets forth the Service Charges made available by Michigan Bell Telephone Company to Carrier for resale to its customers. General terms, conditions, service and feature descriptions as described in Tariff M.P.S.C. NO. 20R, Part 3 and herein apply where appropriate, unless otherwise specified in this Part. The application thereof is to Carrier with regard to service ordering, repair requests or billing responsibility and to Carrier's Customer when designating service location, use, activation, configuration, or sizing.

1. GENERAL

An application for service, whether made orally or in writing, upon acceptance by Company establishes the contract between the Company and the Carrier on the terms and conditions set forth in this Part. Neither the contract nor any rights acquired thereunder may be assigned or in any manner transferred to a third party by the Carrier, without the Company's written approval.

2. LINE CONNECTION AND OTHER SERVICE CHARGES

As set forth in TARIFF M.P.S.C. NO. 20R, PART 3, SECTION 1, miscellaneous service charges, line connection charges and line rearrangement charges will apply to both new Carrier's customers and the switch of an existing Carrier's customer. These charges apply in addition to any other scheduled rates and charges normally applying under this tariff. They apply in addition to and not in lieu of Nonrecurring Charges or Construction Charges made because of unusual cost in establishing service.

2.1 MISCELLANEOUS SERVICE CHARGES
